RE: Sunchase of Ridgeland, LTD, et al. v. City of Ridgeland, Mississippi; In the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi, Northern Division; Civil Action No. 3:14-CV-00938-HTW-LRA

Dear Judge Wingate:

Pursuant to your order entered on November 29, 2016 [Dkt #157], we are hereby advising you of outstanding motions in this action that are still live controversies.

In this action, the City of Ridgeland does not have any outstanding motions which it considers a live controversy. Regarding BBC Baymeadows, LLC v. City of Ridgeland, Mississippi, Civil Action No. 3:14-cv-676-HTW-LRA, there are no live controversies or orders in that case which should be considered live controversies in this action. In Baymeadows, Dkts #214 and #249 are appeals of the Magistrate's Judge's rulings in Baymeadows. However, the Sunchase Plaintiffs did not file its own pleadings or join in on any of Baymeadows pleadings regarding those motions and the subsequent appeal. The pleadings and orders entered regarding those controversies were filed only in the Baymeadows and not in Sunchase. Baymeadows is administratively closed, and as we advised the Court on Monday, we will be submitting a Judgment of Dismissal within the next few days. Accordingly, they would not be live controversies in this action. However, if the Court disagrees, we agree with Plaintiffs' counsel that such motions should be held in abeyance until Defendant's Motions to Dismiss are heard.

With warm regards, we are

Very truly yours,
